

100 mm

The image shows two custom-built robots made of cardboard, each mounted on a blue cylindrical base. The robot on the left is compact, with a height of 100 mm. The robot on the right is taller, with a height of 160 mm. Both robots have a central square component and a ring of triangular flaps. Red dashed lines and arrows indicate the height measurements for each robot.

160 mm